

3CX Introductory Training

Purpose

The 3CX introductory technical training course is for Resellers who are active or planning to become active in the software based PBX market segment.

Pre-Requisite

Knowledge of Microsoft's networking technologies and concepts.

Equipment Required

All equipment will be provided. Optionally you may bring your own notebook/laptop.

Course Outline

- Learn the deployment of the server on a standard Windows machine.
- Learn how to setup both software and hardware SIP Phone extensions.
- Learn how to set up PSTN gateways for the termination of telephone lines, analogue, ISDN, complete with DID.
- Learn how to set up ITSPs (normal VoIP Providers, and SIP Trunk Providers).
- Learn about the architecture of 3CX Phone System for Windows.

Alloy Technical Training Services – Training you for the future

www.alloy.com.au